Peru is a little country about the size of a minute, with a big lump of self conceit and very little of anything else. Uncle Sam could fit out an exploring expedition in ten days that would search out this little South American seaport and administer a spanking that would cool down her war spirit.

Longfellow once said that the talent of success is nothing more than doing what you can do well, without a thought of fame. Man was made for action and life is simply a field for brain and heart exercise. We owe a large part of our happiness to our mistakes, and yet it is true that happiness is never found in failure. Don't mistake aspiration for inspiration. Ambition without genius is sure to end in failure.

Any hen farmer desiring to purchase a fine lot of barbed wire for fencing purposes will apply to Gen. W. R. Shafter, Santiago.—Detroit Journal. The Journal is mistaken. That fence would be no good for hens. Why it would not even keep out "pigs."

Don't waste your breath talking about money being a great evil. Men will make any kind of a sacrifice for money. What can be said about the dangers of riches, ten times as much may be said about the dangers of poverty.

For one time in her life. Spain has acted wisely, in coming directly to the United States for peace.

W. W. Walker,
Tax Collector of Wakulla County.

At the beginning of this war, one of Spain's ministers said she would whip the United States, because she was old, and experienced in fighting, and we were young and unwarlike. That minister has probably found out that it is not age and experience that wins a battle every time, but bravery and heroism.

Those who have busied themselves preparing a home for Admiral Cervera, seem to have forgotten General Blanco. He'll need one too, after while.

A populist political meeting at Cusseta, Ala., this week, came very near resulting in a negro uprising. Several men, white and black, were shot, and it is feared this trouble is not yet over.

Tremble ye warriors! prepare for the fate that now awaits you! The wrath of Peru has been aroused, and she is making final preparations for our total destruction.

If you want to get the benefit of trade, look over the Breeze.
